MEETING PLANS
BEING LAIDMass Meeting for Next Wed-

Out Large AttendanceTo lay the plans and the program for the public hearing on the direct frontage tax statutes, called by the board of supervisors at the request of the Oahu Central Improvement Committee, a meeting was held yesterday afternoon in the office of G. G. Guild by members of the committee.The hearing will take place next Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and will be held in the makai pavilion of the Alexander Young Hotel building. Several speakers have been selected to discuss important questions arising under the frontage tax statutes, among the speakers so far indicated being R. R. Reidford, Marston Campbell, Albert F. Clark, James T. Taylor, Ed. Towson, Charles R.
Hemenway and T. M. Church.C. W. Ashford, president of the improvement committee, in a letter to the mayor and board has outlined three main policies that the board is requested to adopt. The first is for it to fix a percentage of the cost of street work done under the statutes that will be met by the city and county. The second is for the board to let all such work out on contract to the best bidder, and not attempt to do the work through its engineering department. The third is for improvement work on streets, except that which falls under the call of maintenance, to be done under the frontage tax statutes.As many persons are expected to be present at the meeting, it was decided to hold it in the pavilion rather than in the supervisors' chambers.
After the speakers on the committee's program have finished, Supervisor Leslie Petrie, chairman of the roads committee, will make an address on the attitude of the board toward the statutes. After he has finished, the meeting will be open for general discussion.CORNELL CLUB DINNER HOST
LAST EVENINGA very successful dinner and entertainment was given last night at the University Club by the members of the Cornell Club in honor of the juniors and seniors of the McKinley High School and the Punahou academy, who have signified their intention of going to Cornell.After a delightful dinner, "Jack" Horner, toastmaster, called on a few members of the club for short talks.
These short talks covered every side of the university life at Cornell and were received by the young men with enthusiasm.The following were among the guests: Goodale Moir, Albert Little, Malcolm Little, John Watt, Jr., Campbell Crozier, Stanley Mott-Smith, Stafford Austin, William Morgan and Harold Gray.Among the members of the club present were:
Dr. A. L. Andrews, Professor J. M.
Young, Fred Ort, Lewis Renton, Albert Horner, Jr., A. W. Eames, Jr., W.
J. McNeill, Chester Hunn and Prof. H.
A. Austin.LOCAL PHOTOGRAPHER TO ADVERTISE HAWAII
THROUGHOUT THE EASTR. J. Baker, the local photographer, who recently left for the mainland, is making extensive preparations to advertise the Hawaiian Islands in the east through the medium of illustrated lectures, according to a letter from A. F. Taylor, the San Francisco representative of the Promotion Committee, read at the meeting of the promotionists yesterday afternoon.
Mr. Taylor says that Mr. Baker intends giving lectures on Hawaii before the Chatauqua assemblies and other eastern organizations."He has 220 colored slides of Hawaiian scenes and people, which, in my opinion, is the finest collection that has ever gone out from the islands," writes Mr. Taylor. "They are exquisitely colored, are fine examples of photography and many are scenes seldom used before. Many of the railroad companies have become enthusiastic over the collection, and may secure Mr. Baker as their lecturer while he is in the east."Mr. Taylor goes on to say that, after a full inquiry, the San Francisco office again has become a mecca for information seekers. Many persons, he says, already have announced their intention of coming to Honolulu in August to be here during the pineapple festival. He concludes by saying that the motion picture entitled "The Nation's Peril," recently taken in Honolulu and picturing an automobile plunging over the Paia, is attracting keen interest on the coast."Our mutual friend John Wise shows up splendidly and looks like a real, energetic policeman," he says.
"Judge A. A. Wilder filled the brief role assigned to him aboard the steamer in an excellent manner; while the scenes of the postoffice, the palace gates, King and Fort streets and the Paia were very faithfully portrayed."Present at the meeting yesterday was Dr. A. H. Heppner, a prominent physician of San Jose, California, who expressed to the committee his per-A Magnificent Trip

Life at its best becomes, in a measure, monotonous. Here is an opportunity to take a most enjoyable and picturesque automobile ride, at a very nominal cost.

For the first time, tomorrow (Sunday) morning our automobile will make hourly trips from the corner of Oahu and Woodlawn Avenues (lower Manoa Road). Take Manoa car to this destination. First trip at 8:30 a. m.; last trip 5:30 p. m.

This trip takes you over the fine road winding through beautiful Manoa Valley, to scenic affording an unexcelled view of mountains and sea.

In this "Modern Eden," nature has magnified her charms. From the turquoise sky above, down through the verdant valley, to the level of the tropical sea, the whole environment causes one to be exultant, just for the pure joy of living. A pure wholesome pleasure. The cost, 20 cents per person for the round trip. Worth taking at any price!

Sunday Schedule—Hourly trips from 8:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

Daily Schedule—Leave car line a. m.: 8:30, 9:50, 11:50. Leave car line p. m.: 3:45, 5:30.

DANCE AT ARMORY
TONIGHT WILL OPEN
AFTER BAND CONCERT

With the armory ablaze with fluttering flags, and good music to whirl the dancers round the spacious floor, tonight's military ball to be given by Company H, the Chinese-American organization of the National Guard of Hawaii, should set a new mark in public entertainment in Honolulu. The company, 99 strong, has worked hard for the success of the benefit entertainment, the proceeds of which are to go toward furnishing the company rooms, and every member is an individual host. Members of the regular army, navy and marine corps are specially invited, and indications point to a large service attendance.

The Hawaiian band, led by Captain Berger, will give a concert in the executive grounds opposite the armory, between 7:30 and 8:30, at which tickets admit one gentleman and as many ladies as he effects to escort.
